

4-2-75

THE GOSPEL AS GOOD NEWS FOR AFRICAN CULTURES
A Symposium on the Dialogue Between Faith and Culture

G. M. Tonucci, P. Poupard, P. K. Sarpong, P. H. Gundani,
P. Hagan, P. I. Odozor, A. Shorter, J. M. Bahemuka, J. Aniagwu, E. Hillman, J. J.
Kariru, Abba Musi Ghebreghiorghis, R. N. Nzeki

The Catholic University of Eastern Africa

CUEA Publications, 1999

The Gospel as Good News for African Cultures: A Symposium on the Dialogue Between Faith and Culture

Year of Publication: 1999

THE GOSPEL AS GOOD NEWS FOR AFRICAN CULTURES: A SYMPOSIUM ON THE DIALOGUE BETWEEN FAITH AND CULTURE

Edited, Designed and Printed by:
Publications Department
The Catholic University of Eastern Africa
P. O. Box 62157
Nairobi- Kenya

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	i
Editorial Rev. Dr. Juvenalis Baitu	ii
Foreword Most Rev. Giovanni Mwenda Tonucci	1
Fully African, Fully Christian: Introductory Address His Eminence Paul Cardinal Poupard	9
The Gospel as Good News for Africa Today: Keynote Address Rt. Rev. Peter K. Sarpong	17
Good News For Africa's Cultural And Religious Traditions: Wrestling with the Ngozi Spirit. (The case of Gokwe diocese of Zimbabwe) Prof. Paul H. Gundani	31
The Good News for Africa Cultural Institutions and Traditions Prof. George P. Hagan	49
How Can The Gospel Be Heard in the Secular Cultures of Africa's Cities? Rev. Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor, C.S.Sp.	63
A Response to Father Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor Rev. Aylward Shorter, M.Afr.	85
What Hope does the Church Offer the Young People of Africa? Prof. Judith Mbula Bahemuka	103

Response to Talk by Prof. Judith Bahemuka Rev. John Aniagwu	119
The Gospel as Good News for Every People via Inculturation Rev. Eugene Hillman	127
African Art Expresses Christian Faith: The Kenyan Contribution to the African Synod Prof. John J. Kariru	135
African Art Expresses Christian Faith Rev. Abba Musi Ghebreghiorghis	157
Symposium Resolutions	169
Closing Remarks Most Rev. Raphael Ndingi Mwana 'a Nzeki	173
Closing Homily at the Thanksgiving Eucharist His Eminence Paul Cardinal Poupard	179

Acknowledgement

The Catholic University of Eastern Africa (CUEA) is greatly indebted to various people, individually and collectively, who contributed to the success of the Symposium on Good News for African Cultures.

Our heartfelt gratitude goes to the Pontifical Council on Culture, which collaborated with the university in sponsoring the symposium in cash and in kind. We are also grateful to Missio Aachen for providing funds for the publication of the proceedings.

We also acknowledge the English Department of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences of the university for proofreading the various papers and the Research and Publications Department for editing, designing and printing the publication.

Last but not most importantly, we would like to thank all the contributors of papers and participants in the symposium whose input made it successful.